

Discover Pound Ridge, NY!

We invite you to discover the beautiful and unique town of Pound Ridge!

Located in the northeast section of Westchester County, bordering both New York and Connecticut, Pound Ridge offers a unique combination of nature, shopping and historical charm, all within a short commute to New York City.

NATURE

Pound Ridge is full of country roads, densely wooded hills, meandering brooks, and stone outcroppings. Here you'll find Ward Pound Ridge Reservation, Westchester's largest park, multiple Nature Preserves with miles of hiking trails, the Pound Ridge Town Park and the premier Pound Ridge Golf Course.

SHOPPING & FOOD

Nestled within this bucolic community setting, you will find Pound Ridge's quaint business district called "Scott's Corners." Shops include everything from great coffee, wine and cheese, to cold pressed juices, an indie bookshop, art gallery, antiques and community friendly world-class restaurants. Within the newly renovated Pound Ridge Square is The Market, a top-notch, full service independent supermarket.

HISTORICAL CHARM

The "Hamlet" is a cluster of historic landmarks just up the road from the Scott's Corners business district and the Town Park. Located there: the Pound Ridge Library, Conant Hall, Pound Ridge Museum, The Pound Ridge Community Church and the Inn At Pound Ridge, Jean-Georges' world-renowned restaurant.
